Fall into focus with three days of all-day training...an immersive obedience experience where precision is refined, partnerships strengthen, and your work comes together.

Refine the Details. Strengthen the Team. Build the Finish.

Winter Camp built the foundation – Spring Camp polished the picture – Fall Camp refines and solidifies it.

This intensive 3-day obedience camp is designed to elevate precision, deepen understanding, and create confident, trial-ready teams. With an emphasis on thoughtful training and clear communication, Laurie Strimavicius will guide handlers in learning to truly think like a trainer; evaluating performance, determining what is needed to be ready, adjusting criteria, and making decisions that produce consistent, reliable work in and out of the ring.

Training Focus

- Heeling to Perfection – Position, engagement, transitions, full-picture polish
- Precision Under Distraction – Maintain clarity and connection in challenging environments
- Attention & Ring Readiness – Confident starts, warm-ups, and sustained focus
- Training in Pieces – Break down, isolate, and rebuild behaviors for understanding
- Chaining & Flow – Seamless sequences without losing engagement
- Smart Reward Strategies – Effective motivation beyond constant reinforcement
- Criteria Decisions – Knowing when to push forward and when to support

Camp Format

Day 1: Evaluation & Clarity - Assess current work, identify gaps, and establish clear training priorities
Day 2: Precision & Proofing - Strengthen skills under distraction and build reliability in all exercises
Day 3: Handler's Choice - A fully customized day focused on what each team needs most to move forward.

Who Should Attend

- Handlers preparing for obedience or rally trials
- Teams looking to refine, proof, and complete their training
- Trainers wanting to improve communication, precision, and consistency
- Anyone looking to build a more thoughtful, connected, and confident performance with their dog
